TO ENJOIN THE DISPENSARY.

An Effort Is to Be Made to Prevent its Opening.

Some days ago the Telegram published an item to the effect that a lawyer was canvassing the barrooms of the city with a view to raising a fund to enjoin the dispensary managers, board of aldermen and to stop the opening of the dispensary. How well he succeeded in raising funds (the amount asked for, it is understood, was for the purpose of paying for typewriting in preparing the case) we are not informed, but the information that such an attempt would be made was correct, as it now appears.

The reports have it that a number of our leading attorneys have been approached on the subject and have refused to "take the case" giving it as their opinion that the act creating the dispensary was legal and at best a restraining order would, if secured, hold but for a few days. Whether these reports are correct or not, it seems certain that one of the gentlemen has decided to put his opinion against the amount to pay for preparing the case and that injunction proceedings will be instituted. Col. Staples is understood to be the attorney for the barroom men and the correspondent of the News and Observer says the Colonel is "confident of securing a restraining order even if it lasts only fifteen minutes."

The same correspondent further says: "On yesterday the dispensary people were looking around with a view to relieving the whiskey men of such goods as they might have on hand the first of July, but upon finding that this hostile movement was on foot and would be fought to a finish, they considered that it would not be the part of discretion and good policy to purchase the dispensary stock from men who were planning to secure an order of court which would prevent the dispensary from selling again, and we presume that they are left no alternative other than to buy their goods in the usual way from the wholesale dealers.

"This movement for an injunction can have no possible result further than slight delay and inconvenience to the dispensary people and the Greensboro public have no sympathy with it."

CHARLES C. WEAVER WINS.

Awarded the History Fellowship at Johns Hopkins University.

The Telegram learns indirectly but from a reliable source, that Charles C. Weaver, who is attending Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, carried off the honors in the history class at that institution, winning a fellowship entitling him to all his expenses at the University for one year, which is equivalent to $500 in cash. It will not be officially announced until next week. Mr. Weaver is the son of Dr. J. H. Weaver, formerly pastor of West Market Street Methodist Church, this city, and his many friends here and elsewhere will be glad to learn that he has thus honored the Old North State.

Those Hurt by the Ladder.

Mr. J. A. Byrd, who was injured some time ago by a hook and ladder, was out today for the first time since the accident. He is not by any means well, however, and is unable to walk without the aid of a stick.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. MISS CARTER'S ADDRESS

To the Alumnae Last Night at Greensboro Female College.

INTERESTING EXERCISES TODAY.

The Presentation of Diplomas Was Made by Dr. Peacock, Col. Carr Being Absent.

The annual reunion of the former graduates and students of a female college is an event of no small degree of pleasure, to both the alumnae and those who have the pleasure of mingling with them. If this be true of colleges in general it is especially true of Greensboro Female College, where women of two generations received the education which, more than anything else, has helped them to make for themselves a name in this and other states. The annual reunion of the alumnae of this time-honored institution was held in the college chapel last evening, and the auditorium was well filled with alumnae, visitors, students and citizens of Greensboro. At the opening of the the exercises, Rev. Dr. J. J. Wrenn, of the Western North Carolina Conference, led the assemblage in prayer, after which a beautiful vocal trio was rendered by Mrs. M. A. Albright, Mrs. S. L Alderman and Miss Lola Carraway, all of Greensboro. Mrs. Lucy C. Robertson, an honorary member of the alumnae association, then introduced the speaker of the evening, Miss M. E. Carter, of Chester, Va., paying a beautiful tribute to Miss Carter and to the college she both received her intellectual training.

THE ADDRESS.

With apologies to Miss Carter for falling so far short of the good of her splendid address, we print a few of her remarks:

"Two roads lead down the ages—one through history, one through revolution. Last winter a popular newspaper writer said that woman is left out of history. Let us see if we can find her in either history or revolution. Far back in the first records a woman's hand sends out the great principle of evil and it has been spreading and multiplying its agencies in all lands and all countries and still is at its work. Centuries pass and a princess finds a weeping child, makes him her own and he, choosing other relations when he reached mature manhood, led a mighty host from bondage to liberty and lives on the brightest example of self-abnegation among men." The speaker paid glowing tributes to Queen Elizabeth, Queen Victoria, Catherine of Russia, Helen Gould, Florence Nightingale, Clara Barton, leader in the Red Cross work in the late war, and many other noted women of all the ages. The address was golden throughout and was listened to with unusual interest. Miss Carter returned to her seat amid a wave of genuine applause.

At the close of the address President Peacock announced that, just before the opening of the exercises, it had been learned that Miss Alice Wemple, of Danville, who was on the program for a piano solo, was unable to come and that Miss Elma Cole had kindly consented to take the place. Miss Cole, who graduated in the literary department last year and in music this year, is a most accomplished pianist and her rendition of Chopin's Ballade No. 2 received a well merited storm of applause.

Rev. W. L. Grissom pronounced the benediction. After the close of the exercises most of the audience visited the parlors in which the art is exhibited, and other parts of the building until 10 o'clock when the gong sounded.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

A finished education means preparation for a start in life—hence the term commencement as applied to the closing exercises of our colleges and educational institutions. It is perfectly natural for the friends and patrons of a college to flock to its commencement occasions and examine and inspect the thoroughness of the work done in preparing pupils for the "start." Therefore, this morning the college chapel of that splendid old institution, the Greensboro Female College, was full of people to witness the graduating exercises, which began at ten o'clock with an earnest prayer by Rev. J. R. Scroggs, of High Point station.

The first graduating essay was by Mirs Myrtle Elizabeth Chatham, subject: Cuba and the Cubans. It consisted in a graphic description of the island—the pearl of the Antilles, its beauty, climate and advantages, the city of Havana and its beautiful harbor. It is so easy to make a living in Cuba that little effort is required, hence laziness and indolence abound. The treacherous native was discussed in a manner that showed a thorough knowledge of our dusky neighbor and his habits and disposition. Reference to the cooling draught of the coaconut which was like manna from heaven to our soldier boys, was cheered. Cuba seems hardly to have been brushed by the garment of our civilization, but now that our flag floats there is hoped that the advent of the American will improve the isle.

The second essay was by Miss Eva McFaddin Williams, of Sumter, S. C., subject: "The Indians and the North Carolina Settlers." The exile of the red man and the driving of the wigwam from their happy hunting grounds at the approach of the pale faces. The first official meeting when the whites gave presents and gained the friendship of the reds, and the incidents which led to the failure of the first effort to establish an English colony on our soil. Indian legends and their habits in peace and war interestingly portrayed.

Instead of wearying the audience (as is sometimes the case) by dry and uninteresting essays, these were intensely interesting and the time passed away swiftly.

At this juncture a duet—A Night in Venice, was charmingly rendered by Miss Minnie Gorrell and Mr. Z. V. Taylor.

The third essay by Miss Eva Pannell Heitman, subject: "Love Poets in Literature." This essay was entirely different from the two preceding it, being interesting from another standpoint. It may, perhaps, not have been so interesting to the average listener, but it was of high literary merit, beautifully written and gracefully spoken.

An instrumental quartette—Overture to Lenore—was played by Misses Blalock, Nora and Lizzie Baisley and Gwynn.

Certificates for proficiency in stenography were presented to the following young ladies: Misses Dora Smith, Rosa Smith, Mattie Lyon, Mabel Kase, Lillian Roberson, Fannie Vestal, Osie Cornwall, Ruby Eldridge and Hattie Privett.

The standard in stenography is 100 words per minute, and a student must make that before entitled to a certificate.

In the absence of Gen. Julian S. Carr, who was to have presented the diplomas to the graduating class, President Peacock performed that duty and handsomely did he do it. Choice language and originality are two of his characteristics and they were brought into excellent play today. In presenting the Bibles he read to each member of the class a selected verse from the Holy Word, which was a most beautiful and impressive scene. The young ladies who graduate in the regular college course are: Miss Lillian Grizzelle Burton, of Durham; Miss Myrtle Elizabeth Chatham, of Elkin; Miss Elizabeth Florimel Hadley, of Mt Airy; Miss Eva Pannell Heitman, Trinity; Miss Jennie Clegg Webb, Trinity; Miss Eva McFaddin Williams, Sumter, S C.; Miss Elizabeth Lanier Wayne, Raleigh.

Diplomas were presented by President Peacock to the following graduates in music: Misses Elma Cole, Bertha Weathersbee, Lucy Bowden and Mary Gibson; certificates in art were presented to Misses Caldwell Hoyle and Donna Coble.

After the presentation of diplomas and certificates Miss Minnie Gorrell sang Staccata Polka in a manner that "brought down the house." Announcements were make by Dr. Peacock, the Doxology sung and benediction pronounced by Rev. J. F. Heitman.

Thus, with the annual concert which comes off tonight, will pass into history another commencement occasion of a college which is the pride of North Carolina Methodists.

May the old institution, under the firm and judicious guidance of President Peacock, never know anything but success and each recurring commencement occasion show its increased usefulness and ability to give to young women the best training of head and heart to be had.

SILVER TAKES A BACK SEAT?

Mr. Bryan's Surprising Speech at Saint Louis.

AMONG THE EASTERN DEMOCRATS

There is a Growing Disposition Against Making Silver Again The Paramount Issue.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, May 31—Much interest is felt in political circles in the speeches of Hon. William J. Bryan. Especial importance is attached to his utterances last week at St. Louis, at the unofficial conference of the democratic national committee. His relegation of silver to a minor position is regarded as indicative of a disposition on the part of the silver leader to fight the campaign of 1900 along other lines. Silver will, of course, continue to play an important part in the tenets of the democrats party, but, it is believed that other and more important issues will take precedence. The speech of Mr. Bryan in which he flayed the trusts indicates this. It is announced that the democratic national committee will hold another meeting next July for the purpose of deciding definitely upon the issues for the campaign of 1900. Among eastern and southern democrats, there is a growing disposition against making the silver issue again the paramount issue upon which to go before the country. Eastern democrats especially realize the futility of making a campaign upon that issue, and they can see no promise of success for the party either local nor national as long as it clings to the silver issue. No one believes that the party should set silver aside, for as long as silver remains demonetized, so long will the silver issue remain unsettled, but those who are anxious to secure party harmony and success in the eastern states, believe that the chances for democratic victory would be much stronger by going on record before the country against the power of trusts and great corporations. The expansion issue also furnishes a good text upon which the democratic party could contest in the east, especially in New York, Massachusetts and other New England states.

While no one expects to see Bryan defeated for the democratic nomination, at this time, the opinion among politicians coming to Washington is that he will have opposition in the convention. It is expected by those in a position to judge that his leading opponent will be Senator Gorman, of Maryland, who lead the fight on the peace treaty, against the protests of Bryan. It is said that Gorman can count at the start on the Maryland and Delaware delegations, and his friends are making strong efforts to capture Pennsylvania and New York delegations from Bryan. There is also considerable sentiment for Gorman in Georgia and other southern states.

At the navy department it is stated that Admiral Dewey will not return to Washington as early as he had expected, and it is now thought that it may be October before he sets foot upon American soil at New York City.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury O. L. Spaulding, in a letter to the collector of customs at New Orleans, replying to inquiries contained in a letter from the collector, has informed him that under the authority contained in the act approved June 10th, 1880, governing the immediate transportation of dutable merchandise without appraisement, bonded common carriers are allowed to forward packages of merchandise, if corded and sealed, in instances where a sufficient quantity of such goods is not offered to fill an entire car or compartment, in cars not secured by the prescribed customs fastenings.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Mr. Ralph Bingham Will Appear Thursday Night, June 15th.

Mr. Ralph Bingham, who will appear at the Academy of Music on Thursday night, June 15, under the auspices of the ladies of the Centenary M. E. Church, has the power of entertaining an audience in the highest degree. We reproduce the following from the Danville, Va., Bee:

The entertainment given by Mr. Ralph Bingham, Monday night at the Academy of Music was a great success. "Mr. Bingham is a genius having great power and versatility," also an entertainer of irresistable magnetism. "His program consisted of impersonation, recitations and story telling which were all rendered in a high state of perfection," and "with all he is a most accomplished musician." A delightful variety marked the character of his program and it would be a difficult matter to select the gem of the evening.

The audience (which was an unusually large and enthusiastic one for an inclement evening), was at times convulsed with laughter, while from the sweet strains of music from his violin his hearers were held in raptured silence. From start to finish the entire program was thoroughly enjoyable. The audience evinced their pleasure and appreciation by frequent encores which were gracefully and cheerfully responded to by Mr. Bingham. A pretty feature of the entertainment was a cluster bouquet of choice flowers given Mr. Bingham by his gentlemen friends.

The skilful accompaniment beautifully rendered by Miss Hessburg deserves special mention and added very greatly to the success and pleasure of the evening.

Three Games With Danville?

The Greensboro baseball boys are trying to arrange with the Danville team to play three games on the local diamond Wednesday, Thursday and Friday June 7th, 8th and 9th. If the team can be induced to come, some excellent ball playing may be expected. The defeat of the Greensboro boys only added to their determination and, arrayed against so strong a team as Danville's, they will make a game exceedingly warm. They already have the promise of one game with Danville on the home grounds.

The Plug Examined.

The water company yesterday sent a man to examine the water plug from which the firemen were unable to get water at Monday night's fire. He found that the stem which works the valve in the plug was broken making the plug useless. He thinks it was broken by a jar caused by a buggy running against it. One of the firemen said yesterday that two or three plugs in the city were in the same condition. The company should investigate.

Death At Trinity.

Mrs. Mildred English, mother of Prof N. C. English, of Trinity, and Mrs. R. N. Hardin, of Greensboro, died last night at 10 o'clock at Trinity. She was a most excellent lady and her death is greatly deplored.

She was aged 89 years, and had suffered a long illness. The funeral services will be held at Springfield church tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

GIVE US BETTER ROADS.

In an enthusiastic "goods roads meeting" at Asheville last Saturday, Prof. J. A. Holmes, State Geologist, was present, and made an interesting talk. Among other things, he said:

"The good roads movement is on the way in every state in the Union and in Europe. The people see the absolute necessity of them. The people are not too poor to build good roads; they are too poor to not build them. The Mecklenburg county roads are now on a good basis, but it took a hard struggle to educate the people. They have since voted an increase three times for their road fund.

"The present way of building roads is a sheer waste of money. Any road work is mostly wasted unless the road is a good one. If good road work is once started, it will not stop until every road in the county is good. More schools, more churches, more stores are needed, but most of all good roads are wanted.

"Thousands of people wish to come to Buncombe, but they will not come here and sit down in the mud. In the last two years the speaker could have induced at least 500 people to come to the county if there had been good roads and good schools here.

"Mecklenburg county has macadamized about 80 miles in the last 10 years. We want roads over which one horse can haul one ton at any time during the year."

If Professor Holmes could be secured to address the people of Greensboro and Guilford county on the subject of good roads there is no doubt that the movement instituted by Mr. Wharton, and which will lag unless all public-spirited citizens push it with a will, would receive a powerful impetus which can hardly be found at any other source.

The leaders of the movement for good roads in Mecklenburg, we are told, had a long and hard task, because the people were uneducated to the advantages of an improved system of public highways. But finally tireless labors and perseverence prevailed and now that the tremendous enchancement of property value all over the county and the good effects all round of the condition of their admirable turnpikes have waked the Mecklenborg people from their former lethargic state (like ours), they vie with each other in their efforts to increase the present splendid condition of the public roads to perfection. No amount of money could induce them to abandon their present system and return to the old dark-age mud-canals.

When the public roads of Guilford shall have been improved to the extent that modern ideas and civilization demand, Greensboro will receive some of the city-producing benefits that Charlotte has received.

Let everyone who loves the city of Greensboro and the county of Guilford, do all in his power for an improvement of our public roads, and every cent expended in that direction will return to his coffers magnified a hundred-fold.

The irony of fate was never more clearly demonstrated than in the case of Sampson and Clark. Both were captains at the breaking out of the war. Clark's vessel, summoned to the fray, came around South America, daring the Spanish fleet to bar his approach, and arrived at Santiago on full time to be in the scrap with Schley. Sampson, in the words of an exchange, "killed the Matanzas mule," bombarded San Juan for Cervera while Cervera was away off at Martinique, tucked tail and fled back to Key West, and was seven miles away while Schley was fighting Cervera. Yet he turned up to claim the whole business and McKinley bestows upon him the crown of a rear-admiralship. Clark is still a captain. Such are the vicissitudes of life.

A BEAUTIFUL CUSTOM.

There has been some speculation as to how originated the custom which characterizes the celebration of Memorial Day. The ladies of the south are thought to be the first who introduced the idea of scattering flowers over the graves of their dead heroes long before Gen. Lee's surrender. And then in behalf of Gen. Grant the claim is made that he suggested it, and in behalf of Gen. Logan it is stated that he, as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, in 1869 appointed May 30 a day to be consecrated by the various posts to the memory of their departed comrades, but it is not generally thought that the floral idea was mentioned by him.

Speaking of this custom and other popular ones, the Philadelphia Record observes that they are of no importance in comparison with their significance, and ends a very pretty and appropriate editorial with a benediction to the dead boys of the blue and the gray:

In the course of time popular sentiment has impressed itself upon Memorial day exercises and added new meanings to them not contemplated by their originators. Even now, while many of the veterans of the conflict with the memories of which the festival is associated are still living, it has ceased to be wholly a day of mourning for the fallen, but has become the occasion of fraternization among erstwhile foes. All over the land the wearers of the blue and and the gray are standing united as brothers in the silent fields where their comrades lie sleeping, and are strewing the last resting places of the dead with the summer's first blossoms. Decoration day has become a day of reconciliation, and as the years go by this feature of the celebration is bound to gain even greater prominence. Let it be so! Let the flowers—emblems of love—which we scatter on the heroes' graves forever hide out of sight the yawning chasm which for a time devided our country: and may the day become one of national rejoicing over the restoration of our union, firmer and stronger than ever for having gone through a baptism of fire and blood!

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Havel Salve, a thoroughly anti-septic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

"We're short of money," remarked the bunco steerer's wife; "something must be done." "All right, my dear," responded Broadway Billy, the King of the Bunco Men; "I'll go out and see if I can't 'do' a hayseed or two."

A Cure for Blood and Skin Diseases, Eczema, Pimples, Scrofula, Blood Poison, Cancer, etc.

If you have tried sarsaparillas, patent medicines, and doctored, and still have old, persistent sores, pimples, distressing eruptions of the skin, painful sores on hands, arms or legs, itching sensation, irritating skin troubles, eczema, scrofula, ulcers, contagious blood poison, fever sores, mercurial rheumatism, catarrh, boils, face covered with little sores, cancer or any blood taint, then give B. B. B. a trial, because B. B. B.—Botanic Blood Balm—is made for just such cases, and cures to stay cured, those stubborn blood diseases that other milder medicines fail even to benefit. All above named troubles are evidence of bad, diseased blood in the body, and B. B. B. cures because it forces all the poison or impurity or blood humors out of the body, bones and entire system. To remove all doubt of its power to cure we offer to send to any sufferer a sample bottle of B. B. B. absolutely free. B. B. B. is an old, well tried remedy, because we know that it cures to stay cured, for the people cured by B. B. B. years ago are well today and free from all blood impurities.

Cancer, Bleeding, Eating Sores.

Cancer of nose, lip, face, ear or neck, external or internal cancer, bleeding, eating sores, are all cured by B. B. B., the most powerful blood purifier made. All druggists sell B. B. B. at $1 per large bottle. For trial bottle, Address BLOOD BALM CO., 201 Mitchell Street, Atlanta, Ga., and a sample bottle of B. B. B. will be sent by return mail. Describe your symptoms and free personal medical advice will be given.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

ST. LOUIS, MO., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Just out of reach, is where every man would like to be when danger threatened him. Disease is more dangerous than any wild beast. To be just out of reach of disease, is safer than to engage it in a death struggle with doubtful results.

The secret of keeping just out of reach of disease is in keeping the blood pure and rich. Pure blood offers no breeding ground for disease germs. Rich blood creates a vigorous vital force to resist disease. This ideal condition of the blood is best obtained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In thousands of cases where there has been obstinate cough, bronchitis, spitting of blood, weakness or other ailments which if neglected lead on to consumption, "Golden Medical Discovery" has healed the disease and put the life just out of reach of the destroyer.

There is no alcohol or other intoxicant contained in "Golden Medical Discovery."

"After using about five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery my boy seems to be all right," writes Mr. J. W. Price, of Ozark, Monroe Co., Ohio. "He was very bad when I commenced to give him the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' The doctors claimed he had consumption and we doctored with them until he was past walking. It has been ten months since he stopped taking your medicine and he is still in good health. We are very thankful to you for saving our son."

Free. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free by Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of stamps to defray expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covered edition, or 31 stamps for same edition in cloth binding.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

CANCER IS DEADLY!

Results Fatally in Nine Cases Out of Ten—A Cure Found at Last.

This fearful disease often first appears as a mere scratch, a pimple, or lump in the breast, too small to attract any notice, until, in many cases, the deadly disease is fully developed.

Cancer can not be cured by a surgical operation, because the disease is a virulent poison in the blood, circulating throughout the system, and although the sore or ulcer—known as the Cancer—may be cut away, the poison remains in the blood, and promptly breaks out afresh, with renewed violence.

The wonderful success of S. S. S. in curing obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases which were considered incurable, induced a few despairing sufferers to try it for Cancer, after exhausting the skill of the physicians without a cure. Much to their delight S. S. S. proved equal to the disease and promptly effected a cure. The glad news spread rapidly, and it was soon demonstrated beyond doubt that a cure had at last been found for deadly Cancer. Evidence has accumulated which is incontrovertible, of which the following is a specimen:

MRS. S. M. IDOL.

"Cancer is hereditary in our family, my father, a sister and an aunt having died from this dreadful disease. My feelings may be imagined when the horrible disease made its appearance on my side. It was a malignant Cancer, eating inwardly in such a way as to cause great alarm. The disease seemed beyond the skill of the doctors, for their treatment did no good whatever, the Cancer growing worse all the while. Numerous remedies were used for it, but the Cancer grew steadily worse, until it seemed that I was doomed to follow the others of the family, for I know how deadly Cancer is, especially when inherited. I was advised to try Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), which, from the first day, forced out the poison. I continued its use until I had taken eighteen bottles, when I was cured sound and well, and have had no symptoms of the dreadful affliction, though many years have elapsed. S. S. S. is the only cure for Cancer.—MRS. S. M. IDOL, Winston, N. C.

*Our book on Cancer, containing other testimonials and valuable information, will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

Mt. Vernon Springs Hotel will open in a few days for the reception of guests. The waters from the Mt. Vernon Springs are equalled by few and surpassed by none in the state for medicinal and curative properties. Some of its cures are almost miraculous. Its taste is pleasant, cool, palatable and refreshing, and you enjoy it from the first. The springs are surrounded by great natural beauty. Around the premises is a dense oak grove and the air is pure and invigorating.
